

Rugby League Brisbane Players Scholarships

Application Form

As part of its community engagement program, Intech Institute of Technology has announced it will provide financial support for up to 6 players who enroll in one of their academic programs.

Offered in partnership with the RLB, this scholarship will cover the full cost of the tuition, resources for students enrolled in the following academic programs. We are proud to partner with RLB, that recognises the important work we are doing as a college and supporting players success. Through this initiative, the institute will continue increasing access to quality education and provide job ready skills for individuals.
